R. A. Resolution

'public document' under the Co. Act. It would not be a public document if it be only a report, qua report. Govt. need not publish all reports made to them by Committees set up by them. A decision will depend on the nature & contents of the report, and whether and if would be in public interest to publish the contents

4. The answer to this question may perhaps be that the Govt. would be able to come to a decision after they receive the report, and the question of allowing the R.H. to have its say in the matter will also be considered then
